

SURF CITY TAXPAYER ASSOCIATION

SUMMER 2014 MEETINGS

The Association's two summer membership meetings are held at the Surf City Borough Hall. Meetings include a "town hall" segment, which offers the membership an opportunity to offer suggestions, ask questions, provide guidance, and volunteer their time to the organization.

MEET THE MAYOR

Saturday, June 21st 10:00 A.M.
(Free breakfast begins at 9:45)

Mayor Leonard T. Connors, Jr., will be on hand to discuss issues of special interest to all Surf City taxpayers. For up-to-date information concerning your town, this meeting is a must-attend event.

HOW TO GET THINGS DONE IN SURF CITY

Saturday, August 23rd, 10:00 A.M.
(Free breakfast begins at 9:45)

At our second membership meeting, you'll have a chance to bring your questions to the town officials who preside over many aspects of our town's business.

Speakers will include:

Town Administrator: Mary Madonna
Councilman Peter Hartney (Beaches, Land Use Board)
Police Chief William Z. Collins III

THE SURF CITY FLAG

Available for purchase at Anchor Wine & Spirits, this flag incorporates the town's history of whaling and Borough's present status as a premier family resort. Included with each flag is a brief history of Surf City by the late John Bailey Lloyd. Purchase your own flag at Anchor Wine & Spirits, 1500 N. Long Beach Blvd. and display your pride in Surf City!

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE AT VETERAN'S PARK

Saturday, May 24th at 11:00 A.M.

Join your friends and neighbors to celebrate the dedication and honor the sacrifices of our armed forces veterans. Freeholder Gerry Little will be the guest speaker.
